Hemenway-Waters

One of the prettiest home weddings ever occurred on Thursday, Sept. 1st, at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Waters, when their younger daughter, Mary, was married to Harvey G. Hemenway by the Rev. A. B. Ross, pastor of the Congregational Church.

The house was decorated in a color scheme of green and white. The bay window, where the bridal couple stood under a beautiful floral bell, was outlined with hydrangeas and ferns, the scarlet geraniums and hedge of hydrangea outside, adding to the beauty of the scene.

Miss Emma Elliot, for seven years the teacher of vocal music in our Normal School, sang most sweetly, "At Dawning," then the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by the groom's sister and the bridal party entered.

The bride was charming in a white georgette dress over white satin and silver lace, made by her own capable hands. (Score one for Vermont girls!) Her veil was tulle, caught with lilies of the valley, and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses.

Miss Beulah McFarland of Burlington, the maid of honor, wore pink georgette, and had a bouquet of sweet peas. Alice McFarland and Mildred Barrett, bridesmaids wore dainty pink organdies, and carried pink and white asters. The best man was Ralph Hemenway, a nephew of the groom.

The ceremony was simple but impressive, the double-ring service being used.

After the usual congratulations, fruit-punch was served in the dining-room. The table was most attractive with festoons of wide pink and white crepe paper, suspended from the ceiling. The bride cut the wedding cake, a wonderful creation to see, as well as both delicious, served with brick ice cream.

Certainly, "All went merry as a marriage bell." Soon after, amid a shower of confetti and rose petals, the bridal pair were swiftly whirled away in a waiting auto, for a honeymoon trip to Boston and Hampton Beach, later to settle in Brattleboro.

There were many beautiful presents of silver, linen, china, pictures, cut-glass and checks.

The bride is a graduate of both Johnson High and Normal Schools, and has taught successfully for five years.

The groom is a graduate of the Boston School of Undertaking and Embalming and is now connected with a firm in that business in Brattleboro.

Among those present from out town were: Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hemenway and son, Ralph, of Boston, Alice and Belle Hemenway, Mrs. Alva Barrett and daughter Mildred, of Saxton's River, Edward Warwick of Brattleboro, W. A. Craig of Bellows Falls, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. McFarland and daughters, Marion, Beulah and Alice, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Jones, and Mrs. Laura Landon of Burlington, Miss Emma G. Elliot of Taunton, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Cobb, Hazel Cobb and Laura G. Wheeler of Hardwick, Rachel A. Dix of Barre, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brennan of Orleans.

"Happy is the bride that the sunshines on." Certainly the perfect, cloudless day, augured well for the future happiness of the wedded couple.
